PRESS RELEASE

Wylie's Smith Library Welcomes Professional Organizer

Wylie, Texas, Aug. 4, 2016 – Sandy Jones, owner of Someday Organizing, will present “Cleaning the Mental and Physical Clutter” at Wylie’s Smith Library Thursday, Aug. 25, at 6:30 pm. The event is free and no registration is required.

Jones, who has been in business as a professional organizer for 10 years, is an expert in organizing all areas of home and life, including closets, kitchens and photographs and offices. She has participated in hoarding TV reality programs such as “Hoarders” on A&E and “Hoarding: Buried Alive” on TLC. Her true passion, however, is helping people organize “what matters most,” including photographs, home inventories and digital estates – things that most put off for the proverbial “someday.”

Jones is a Golden Circle member of the National Association of Professional Organizers and has served on the local chapter as the Director of Professional Development. She is a member of the Association of Personal Photo Organizers, and she volunteers for the National Disaster Photo Rescue Group.

Smith Library is located at 300 Country Club Rd., Bldg. 300, Wylie, TX 75098. For more information about this or other programs, visit Wylie.texas.gov/library.
