

Shining the Wylie Way 2ND 9 Weeks 2016-2017 Council Meeting Dec. 10 2016

Wylie ISD recognizes the importance of fostering ethical, responsible and caring young people through an emphasis on the core values of the Wylie ISD community. These core values are:

- Respect and Responsibility
- Caring and Giving
- Grit and Preparedness
- Gratitude and Celebration

These students are being recognized for excelling at one or more of these core values and for “Shining the Way” with good character the first nine weeks.

Jon Connelly	Akin Elementary	3 rd grade Mrs. Jordan	Jon Connelly comes to school ready to do his best. He is a quiet presence in the classroom, but I can always count on him to be listening, thinking, and participating in class discussions. Even if something is hard, Jon pushes through and shows his grit! He does his best whether in a group setting, with a partner, or working independently. He shows his classmates kindness and respect. Jon is always willing to lend a helping hand, often cleaning up the classroom or aiding another student without ever being asked. He acts as an example for others through his actions every day.
Alexis Bausman	Birmingham Elementary	2 nd Grade Mrs. Leeper	Alexis has a kind and caring heart and is a light in our classroom. Without hesitation, she is the student that is willing to give up what she has to help someone else, (books, supplies, etc) and often creates and gives handmade gifts to other students just to make someone smile. Her giving nature shines because she genuinely cares, and not for any other reason. She is quiet, calm, very patient and a wonderful example to others, not to mention her sweet, contagious smile.
Arantza Frias Trevizo	Bush Elementary	4 th grade Mrs. Garcia	Arantza is a kind and caring student who continually encourages others. She is well respected by her peers and enjoys working with everyone. We are so happy to know her and to enjoy her company.
Nate Hamilton	Cox Elementary	2 nd grade Polly Myer	Nate is always willing to help a friend with whatever he can from picking up trash on the floor to helping with math problems. He is never disappointed when there is hard word in front of him, he looks at it as a challenge and an opportunity for success. Way to Shine!
Nura Barwary	Dodd Elementary	3 rd grade Julie Stade	Nura has a very big heart. She is always willing the give a helping hand to both her classmates and her teachers. She is a gentle, caring girl who never has a harsh word for anyone.

Madilyn Ngo	Groves Elementary	3 rd grade Mrs. Johns	Madi exemplifies caring and giving. She is so kind to everyone in her class and is always ready to lend a helping hand. Her giving and caring spirit makes her such an excellent example to us all.
Amelia Farmer	Hartman Elementary	3 rd grade Klingbeil, Rogers, Starnes	Amelia Farmer is a fine example of the caring and giving character trait. Amelia shows her care and concern about her work every day, but at the same time is able to extend her caring attitude towards her peers and teachers. She gives 100% effort daily and also gives help to her classmates when needed. We are so proud and honored to have a student like Amelia in our class!
Knox Whitson	Smith Elementary	1 st grade Mrs. Segrest	Knox tackles new challenges seriously/eagerly and with a positive attitude. He arrives at school each day with a smile, ready to learn. His kind, caring, and friendly character makes him a role model for our class. I am thankful that he is in my class because he truly shines all day!
Drake Novara	Tibbals Elementary	3 rd grade Amy Swanson	Drake is a very selfless and sweet student. He comes in everyday with a smile on his face, ready to work hard. He is always so kind and thinks of others before himself. Drake is always willing to give a helping hand. Drake is the Wylie Way and I am so proud of everything he has accomplished!
Maddy Boyle	Watkins Elementary	3 rd grade Heather Warren	Maddy is always helping others in class. Usually, she takes it upon herself to make sure that students in class do not need any help. She is caring and giving to others. She truly exhibits the Wylie Way.
Melody Petros	Whitt Elementary	3 rd grade Knapp, McReynolds	Melody is a caring student who has a watchful eye for those who are in need in the classroom. She is quick to offer a pencil or scissors. She is polite and courteous.
Sydney Farrow	Davis Intermediate	5 th grade Mrs. Adams	Sydney exemplifies caring and giving. She is always kind and willing to help anyone in need. During the food drive, she tirelessly helped Mrs. Wyatt out nearly every day. She came before and after school to make sure every box was packed correctly. Her selflessness shines through her inside and outside of the classroom.
Mackenzie Davis	Draper Intermediate	5 th grade Dena Murray	Mackenzie is a wonderful young lady who just beams as she walks. Her smile can light up a room. She is happy all the time. Because of her happiness, she easily helps others to be happy as well. She is very giving, and she genuinely cares about others. She does her best to help and to make others' lives easier. I appreciate having Mackenzie in my class because I know she cares about others.

Joseph Le	Harrison Intermediate	5 th grade McClain	Joseph is quick to help others in need. As a student who is new to the country and is still learning the English language, he is very friendly and helpful to all others. He recently helped a girl who had dropped all of her stuff in the hall, and didn't hesitate to stop in his tracks and immediately help her.
Madison Parkin	Burnett Junior High	7 th grade Jennifer Colburn	Madison is always willing to leave her table full of her friends and go sit with a student who is by themselves and work with them on partner work. I have seen her do this several times throughout the last couple of weeks. The student appreciates it, and so do I.
Nathan Landrum	Cooper Junior High	8 th grade Ross	Nathan is always willing and able to contribute in any way possible. He goes above and beyond expectation, and contributes in all phases. He is always open to ideas and see those ideas through inception to completion.
Madison Geller	McMillan Junior High	8 th grade Mrs. Jones	Maddie is a peer buddy for the Life Skills classroom this year. She is considerate, patient, dependable, and goes above and beyond in the Giving and Caring. She brings things that the students need. She is wonderful. She is a great role model and is truly filled with the Wylie Magic.
Rylie Herrington	Wylie East High School	11 th grade Seed	Rylie has such a kind heart and will do anything for anyone. She goes out of her way to make sure that everyone is included in activities. This past weekend she spend her Sunday supporting our Mascot at a competition. She wanted her to feel supported and loved. Rylie is an amazing young woman.
Jamie Cutright	Wylie East High School	12 th grade True, John	Jamie is an outstanding young man. Has a very pleasant attitude, smiles frequently, and never has a disparaging word for another person. He has been a pleasure to teach this year in Senior English. He is a great student, doing everything asked of him on time and completely. He leads through his actions and confident demeanor. He helps other students when asked and makes sure every other student keeps their dignity, treating them all as equals. His values system is beyond reproach, and his standards for himself and those around him never diminish.
Brooke Switzer	Wylie High School	12 th grade Greg Potter	Brooke is quick to recognize those who are not having a great day and offer some type of complimentary comment. She is genuine in her attitude, especially when trying to cheer up others. Her care for others can be felt immediately upon meeting her.

Christian Edens	Wylie High School	12th grade Stephanie Shepard	Christian is the kind of student that always puts others before himself. He is supportive to others and even brings in rewards to classmates when they do well or just to brighten their days. His amazing encouragement means so much to his classmates. During the past two years, his positive attitude and giving heart have been a constant. I know he will make a fantastic educator one day!
Brooklyn Campbell	Achieve Academy	11th grade Mrs. Reece-Fincanon	Brooklyn Campbell is an outstanding young lady who exemplifies The Wylie Way. She is respectful, considerate and always kind to others.
