

Boards & Commissions Qualifications

Animal Shelter Advisory Board

The Board shall consist of five members. The board shall consist of:

- a licensed veterinarian
- a member of the city council of the City of Wylie
- the animal shelter supervisor
- a representative from an animal welfare organization
- a resident of the City of Wylie, Texas

The board members serve for a term of two years, except for the animal shelter supervisor who shall be a permanent member of the board. Except for the animal shelter supervisor, no board member shall serve for more than three consecutive terms or six consecutive years (whichever is less); provided, however, should a board member's replacement not be qualified upon the expiration of any term of a board member, then that board member shall holdover on the board until a qualified replacement board member has been appointed. The board shall meet at least three times per year and any additional meetings as may be called from time to time.

Board of Ethics

The Board shall consist of five members and two alternates who will serve no more than one (1) term of two (2) years, with the exception of the inception to achieve staggered terms.

- all members must live within the city of Wylie city limits
- may not serve on any other Council appointed Board or Commission during their term
- City of Wylie employees may not serve on the Board.

Construction Code Board

The board shall consist of seven members and three alternate members. The members shall consist of at least one taxpaying citizen of Wylie and the remaining members be registered voters of the City of Wylie from the following:

- Two designated members shall be building contractors.
- Two designated members shall be plumbers.
- Two designated members shall be electricians (one master and one journeyman).

If members in the subsections above are not available for appointment, one of the two designated tradesmen for each category may be replaced with a taxpaying citizen of Wylie. In the event no one from the designated tradesmen categories above is available for appointment, they may be replaced with a registered voter tradesman residing in Wylie's ETJ or doing business in Wylie. Alternate members shall be taxpaying residents of the City. In the absence of a member an alternate will serve on the board. The members and alternate members of the board shall serve for two-year staggered terms. The board shall hold such regular, special, or called meetings as are necessary for its proper performance of duty.

Historic Review Commission

The Commission shall consist of seven members. The city council shall endeavor, to the extent reasonably available, to appoint at least four citizens at large and the remaining three from the following categories:

- Member(s) in good standing with the Downtown Merchants Association
- Member(s) in good standing with the Wylie Historic Society
- Historian
- Owner of or resident or tenant in a landmark property

Commission members shall serve for a term of two years; provided, however, that the members of the first Commission to serve shall be appointed so that three (3) members shall serve one (1) year terms and four (4) members shall serve two (2) year terms. Each Commission member shall be a qualified voter and shall not be an employee of the City. The commission shall meet at least once each month; special meetings may be called.

Library Board

The Library Board shall consist of seven members who shall be qualified voters and shall serve for a term of two years. The board shall meet monthly and special meetings may be called.
