Councilmembers Stephens & Winters Take the Oath of Office; Scott Named Mayor pro tem

Welcome your new Councilmembers--Keith Stephens, place 1, and Todd Winters, place 3. Stephens fills the seat of outgoing Councilman David Goss, and outgoing Mayor pro tem Kathy Spillyards' seat was filled by Winters. Both men were elected unopposed to three year terms and jumped right into action during the three and a half hour meeting Tuesday, May 14. Congratulations to Councilman Nathan Scott who was elected by the City Council as your new Mayor pro tem.

Did you know the entire City Council packet is available the Friday before regularly scheduled meetings at WylieTexas.gov > City Government > Boards, Agendas and Minutes?

Councilman Todd Winters takes the Oath of Office administered by Judge Terry Douglas as his wife Nikki and daughters Mackenzie and Madilynn look on.

Councilman Keith Stephens, joined by his wife Susie, starts his three year term in office.

City Council Meetings
2nd & 4th Tuesdays

Stage 3 Water Restrictions

Wylie enacted Stage 3 Water Restrictions June 1 at the request of the North Texas Municipal Water District due to below average rainfall and low lake levels. Watering lawns is limited to once per week according to your trash day and prohibited between the hours of 10 am - 6 pm.

Fireworks Prohibited in City Limits

The Wylie Fire Marshal's Office encourages you to have a safe Independence Day celebration. U.S. hospital emergency rooms treat nearly 9,000 people each year for fireworks-related injuries.

The use, possession, or sale of fireworks within the city limits of Wylie is prohibited. Anyone caught with or using fireworks will be cited and the fireworks will be seized.

Smith Library Activities and Events

The Summer Reading Club is in high gear with programs for kids, teens and adults. Find a schedule of activities online and don't miss out on the fun. Adults will also find classes on Quickbooks, starting a small business, and wide range of computer classes.

Wylie Recreation Center Fun & Fitness

Check out the many summer programs online including our Sunsational Saturday outings for the whole family. How about peach picking and a petting zoo, or a trip to the Perot Museum? There's much more!
