Festival of Lights Christmas Parade

The celebration continues at 5:30 pm with the Festival of Lights Christmas Parade on Ballard Avenue, sponsored by First Baptist Wylie and the Wylie Downtown Merchants Association.

Tree Lighting

Top off the evening in Olde City Park with the annual tree lighting ceremony at approximately 7 pm, following the parade, featuring Christmas music and Mayor Eric Hogue's reading of "A Visit from St. Nicholas" (aka "The Night Before Christmas").

Children's Activities

Kids will enjoy a selection of inflatables, a petting zoo, and a barrel train. Other activities include face painting and caricatures. And check out our vendor's wide selection of handmade children's items.

Community Art

One of the more unique and much-anticipated activities at the festival is the 5-by-8-foot Community Canvas. Kids of all ages will have the opportunity, under the supervision of an artist, to help create a masterpiece.
