Wylie Prep Welcomes Mayor; Students Make Suggestions

Wylie, TX, Feb. 20, 2015 – Wylie Mayor Eric Hogue visited Wylie Preparatory Academy first-graders Feb. 18 to talk about the roles of local, state and national government and the responsibilities of good citizens.

The students also suggested legislation they'd like to see enacted in Wylie. Abby Hardin said candy should be available for everyone every day, and Karter Flemming supported free hot dogs. Mitchell Murphree and Caleb Caperton said everything should be free, while David Boll and Braeden Reed agreed there should be no robbing. Nicholas Clisch said kids should have cars, and Evan Murphree said those cars should fly. Emily Ford said laws should require everyone to take care of the earth; Blake Henrichsen said everyone should love God; and Maddie Murrie said “no bullies” should be allowed by ordinance.

The students invited the mayor to stay for cookies and thanked him for his service to the community.
