Wylie Employees Honored for Milestone Anniversaries

Wylie, TX, June 11, 2015 – Mayor Eric Hogue and City Manager Mindy Manson recognized three City of Wylie employees for their years of service at the June 9 council meeting.

Celebrating 15 years was Aron Bressler, water crew leader. He began working for Wylie at the age of 18. Wylie Police Officer Mark Howeth and Officer Jose Villalobos both celebrated 10 years of employment with the City of Wylie. Erica Elias was not present, but she works as a recreation monitor in the Wylie Recreation Center and has been with the city for 10 years.

Howeth

Bressler

Villalobos
