Wylie's Smith Library to Host Doctor Who Day

Wylie, TX, Aug. 10, 2015 – Fans of popular TV series “Doctor Who” are invited to Wylie’s Smith Public Library for Doctor Who Day Saturday, Aug. 22, from 11 am to 4:30 pm. The event is free and suitable for all ages.

Activities include trivia and cosplay competitions, with prize packs to be awarded, and a photo opportunity with the TARDIS (Time And Relative Dimension in Space), used by Doctor Who and his Companions to travel through space and time. The TARDIS is one of the iconic symbols of the show, which has a 50-year history on TV.

Attendees will also have a chance to see extraterrestrial cyborgs, the Daleks, in action. The Daleks, who have lost the ability to feel pity, empathy or love, are the first villains to appear on “Doctor Who.” Their goal is to conquer the universe, and their now-famous catchphrase is, “Exterminate!”

The TARDIS appears courtesy of the USS Joshua Science Fiction Fan Group, and the Daleks are courtesy of Max and Toby Thomas. Each group built the life-size props; the Daleks are fully motorized, lighted, and have a 5-watt PA amplifier with voice changer.
