Wylie JazzArts Fest April 18 Features Music, Fine Art, Food and Fun

WHAT: Shop for fine art and exceptionally unique crafts, enjoy great food, and listen to the smooth sounds of professional jazz musicians, college ensembles and area high school jazz bands, Saturday, April 18, 9 am – 9 pm, at the Wylie JazzArts Fest.

The architecturally award-winning Wylie Municipal Complex, 300 Country Club Rd., and its many public art installations will serve as the backdrop for this community event sponsored by the City of Wylie and the Public Art Advisory Board.

Professional performers include Tatiana LadyMay Mayfield, Quamon Fowler, Landon Torbett, Sky Window, Crosswinds Jazz Band, and Ray Baker. Collin College will also take the stage along with jazz ensembles from top area colleges, high schools and junior highs.

Attendees may design a free hat with Rad Hatter or contribute to the Community Canvas that will be hung in the Wylie Recreation Center upon completion. Kids will enjoy balloon artists and make their own 3D artwork at the paint-pour sculpture table. Fine art in many disciplines will be on display and available for purchase. Student artists from Wylie High Schools and Wylie Preparatory Academy will also display a selection of art.
