Fourth Annual Annual Ride Against Crime May 21
Wylie Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association Seeks Riders

Wylie, TX, March 2, 2016 – Wylie Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association invites all motorcycle riders to participate in its fourth annual Ride Against Crime Bike Run, scheduled for Saturday, May 21, at 10 am. All proceeds will benefit the Wylie Police Department.

The 1.5-hour ride winds through scenic, rural roads, with riders stopping at several locations to collect raffle tickets for great prizes. Additional tickets will be available for sale. The ride begins and ends at the pavilion in Olde City Park in historic downtown Wylie; music and free food and drinks will be provided at the end of the ride.

Cost to ride is $20 until May 2, then $25; passengers ride for $10. Pre-registered participants receive a commemorative ride T-shirt. Sponsorships are also available, from $100 Bronze to $600 Platinum. Visit wylietexas.gov/departments/police/citizens_police_academy for registration and sponsorship forms and for more information. Deadline to guarantee sponsorship logo on back of shirt and payment is April 30.

The Wylie Citizens Police Academy Alumni Association is a nonprofit organization made up of graduates of the Wylie Citizens Police Academy. The group's purpose is to enhance relations between the community and the Wylie Police Department through continuing education and to support the PD in a variety of ways, including the purchase of equipment and supplies.
