

Rec Center Hosting Kid-Friendly Holiday Activities

Wylie, Texas, Nov. 7, 2016 – Wylie Recreation Center has kids' activities and events planned to make the holidays even more special.

On Saturday, Dec. 10, youngsters, ages 2 to 10, can partake in Donuts with Santa from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. The jolly old elf and his famous team of helpers are stopping by Wylie Recreation Center to share a kid-friendly breakfast. Capture precious memories and milestones, honor a holiday tradition, and share in themed activity time. Enjoy crafts and treats and take home a digital picture with Santa. Preregistration and parent participation required. Register per child. Registration includes parent. For questions, contact Ally Covalt at Wylie Rec Center, Recreation@WylieTexas.gov or 972-516-6360. Cost is $15.

Parents' Night Out is planned for Friday, Dec. 9, from 6 to 10 p.m. Enjoy a night on the town or do some shopping while your kids, ages 6 to 12, have fun at Wylie Recreation Center. Active and organized activities increase social skills, boost creativity, and enhance motor skills. Activities include supervised crafts, games, rock climbing, pizza for dinner, and a movie. Register by Wednesday, Dec. 7. Drop off and pick up your child any time during the scheduled hours. Please pack a dinner if your child has dietary restrictions. For questions, contact Ally Covalt at Wylie Rec Center, Recreation@WylieTexas.gov or 972-516-6360. Cost is $20.
