WE'VE PERFECTED CUSTOM PATIO ROOMS & SCREEN ENCLOSURES AT A FRACTION OF THE COST!

Some companies say 'custom', but in reality you get only a few limited options to choose from – you either fit into their glass box or you don't! When we say custom, we mean built from the ground up to meet your exact specifications. And our sunrooms are rock-solid – built in Texas for Texas weather!

Judge Terry Douglas administers the Oath of Office to Diane Culver May 20, while her husband Jim looks on. Culver was elected to Wylie City Council Place 2. A run-off election between incumbent Bennie Jones and Candy Arrington for the Place 4 seat will take place June 13.

CITY GOVERNMENT

Mayor for a day

Mayor Eric Hogue welcomed Emily Edwards, a fifth-grader at Wylie's Davis Intermediate School, to the dais May 26 as she took the gavel and became Junior Mayor for the Day. Emily's family bid on the honor to show their support for Davis' Parent Teacher Association. Emily loves to study science, play soccer, swim and ride bikes with friends, and, when Mayor Hogue asked her what she would like to say to Fire Chief Brent Parker, who worked for her – at least for the day – she said, "Thank you!"
