SMITH PUBLIC LIBRARY

Photos by STEWART F. HOUSE/special contributor

Onlookers check out Wylie resident Clark Forester (right), 9, and his father, Robert, who were both dressed as The Eleventh Doctor.

Celebrating 'Doctor Who'

Fans of popular TV series Doctor Who visited Wylie's Smith Public Library for Doctor Who Day on Aug. 22. Activities included trivia and cosplay competitions and a photo opportunity with the TARDIS. The TARDIS appeared courtesy of the USS Joshua Science Fiction Fan Group, and the Daleks were courtesy of Max and Toby Thomas. Each group built the life-size props; the Daleks are fully motorized and lighted and have a 5-watt PA amplifier with voice changer.

Jack Winn, 10, of Wylie was dressed as The Sheriff for a costume contest during Doctor Who Day at the Smith Public Library.
