

WYLIE

Let the good times roll

Wylie hosted its annual JazzArts Fest on April 18 at the Wylie Municipal complex. The festival featured a variety of jazz bands and family-friendly activities.

Photos by CRAIG KELLY/City of Wylie

Sophie Sewell, 4, rocks shades and crayons at a coloring table. Kids had opportunities to create art, and adults listened to cool jazz and shopped for fine art at JazzArts Fest in Wylie.

Preston True, 8, from Cox Elementary, creates a masterpiece at the Paint & Pour table at Wylie's JazzArts Fest.

Above: Sheri Sewell and Jaye Kidwell from McKinney share a blanket on the lawn of the Wylie Municipal Complex while Crosswinds Jazz Band performs on the JazzArts Fest stage.

Right: Chelsea Gomez, 9, from Smith Elementary, sets her Paint & Pour creation in the grass to dry.

Members of Wylie High School's jazz band Brage Acuff and Michael Spaulding finish their set at JazzArts Fest. WHS and Wylie East jazz ensembles closed out the student portion of the lineup, giving the stage to Crosswinds Jazz Band.

Plano MURPHY WYLIE

WYLIE
Music to the ears

JazzArts Fest brings live entertainment, family fun to Municipal Complex 15

Acing their SATs

Plano brothers both earn a perfect 2400 on test 16

ORPHAN OUTREACH

Children's Hope Dinner raises $125,000 18

PLANO

Prestonwood Christian students visit Capitol 20

NEIL SPERRY

Popular plants attacked by persistent pests 27

SOUNDING OFF

Has Blue Bell's full recall caused you concern? 28