

FESTIVAL OF LIGHTS CHRISTMAS PARADE

Photos by ANNE HINEY

Wylie High School's choral ensemble Tempo, under the direction of Casey McCollough, sang carols at the tree lighting in Olde City Park.

Lighting the tree

Mayor Eric Hogue was assisted in his master of ceremonies duties by Blake Henderson, left, and his brother, Tanner. The boys are the sons of Wylie Police Chief Anthony Henderson.

Wylie residents came out to Olde City Park on Dec. 5 to watch the lighting of the city's Christmas tree and the Festival of Lights Christmas Parade following the Wylie Arts Festival. Wylie High School's show choir Tempo performed, and Mayor Eric Hogue even joined in for a tune.

Members of Wylie High School show choir Tempo join Mayor Eric Hogue (center) to wish the crowd a merry Christmas at the tree lighting. The choir sang Christmas carols following the parade.

"Stunning...as rich in masterpieces as it is in history."
 - Lance Esplund, THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

Treasures from The
HOUSE OF ALBA
 500 YEARS OF ART AND COLLECTING

THROUGH JANUARY 3, 2016

VELÁZQUEZ | GOYA | RUBENS | Renoir
 COLUMBUS | NAPOLEON III

This exhibition is co-organized by the Meadows Museum and the Casa de Alba Foundation. A generous gift from The Meadows Foundation has made this project possible. It is part of the Museum's Golden Anniversary, which is sponsored by The Meadows Foundation, The Moody Foundation, the Dallas Tarrant Public Improvement District and the Dallas Convention & Visitors Bureau. Media sponsorship has been provided by The Dallas Morning News. This exhibition is supported by an internship from the Federal Council on the Arts and the Humanities Francisco José de Goya y Lucientes Spanish, 1746-1808. The Diarcho of Alba is (Wikipedia), 1795. Oil on canvas. Colección Duques de Alba, Palacio de Liria, Madrid.

MEADOWS MUSEUM • SMU • DALLAS