WYLIE FIRE RESCUE

Learning about conservation

Otis the Otter visited Wylie Fire Rescue Station 1 on July 31 to remind everyone to continue practicing water conservation. Otis represents the North Texas Municipal Water District's Water 4 Otter program. Kids are invited to visit water4otter.org to download the Water4Otter game and read more about Otis and his friends, including tips on saving water, GIFs to share and other activities. Wylie firefighters Clayton Jones (left), Richard Hollien, Michael Towne and Capt. Ray Jackson help Otis the Otter remind the public to use water sparingly so there's plenty to go around during these 100-degree days.
