

BLUEGRASS ON BALLARD

Music city

The City of Wylie, along with the Wylie Downtown Merchants Association, hosted the annual Bluegrass on Ballard festival June 27. The event featured food, music, a car show, chili cook-off and performances from Joe Mullins and The Radio Ramblers, Texas and Tennessee, In Achordance, Phil Ferguson and Texas True, Bobby Giles and Music Mountain and Sgt. Pepper's Lonely Bluegrass Band.

Bottom left: Bluegrass music — and lawn chairs — filled the streets of historic downtown Wylie on June 27. Bottom right: Larry Farrar, with baby Hope on his chest and Lee in the stroller, along with his wife Jenya and big sister Grace.

Photos by CRAIG KELLY/City of Wylie

Top left: From left, Holly Williams, Roy Wessels and Ryan Sikes, members of Corpus Christi band In Achordance, play at Bluegrass on Ballard. Top right: Canon Brooks, 3, Brooklyn Brooks, 4, and their mom Amanda Brooks check out the wheels in the 200-vehicle car show. Middle right: David Dees and Brent Young jam in an impromptu session in 96° West Winery in downtown Wylie.

IMAGINE LIFE WITHOUT VARICOSE VEINS

VEIN CLINIC OF TEXAS

972.893.9199

- Covered by Medicare and most insurance
- Quick outpatient procedure
- Return to normal activities, typically within 1-2 days
- Less pain, less bruising, fewer complications than laser
- Experienced Board Certified Vein Specialists

Setting the scene

Plano works to create arts district downtown 8

WYLIE

Bluegrass festival draws crowd to downtown 15

PLANO

Farmstead raises funds with dinner, concert 18

SOUNDING OFF

Should Texas DPS collect full fingerprint sets? 20

NEIL SPERRY

Harsh summers perfect for some native plants 21