

Whereas, quality afterschool programs and opportunities provide safe, challenging, and engaging learning experiences for children and young adults; and

Whereas, afterschool programs support working families and help build stronger communities; and

Whereas, AlphaBEST and the Wylie Independent School District provide significant leadership in the area of community involvement in the education and well-being of our youth, grounded in the principle that quality afterschool programs are key to helping our children become successful adults; and

Whereas, Lights On Afterschool promotes the importance of quality afterschool programs in the lives of children, families and communities; and

Whereas, 2014 marks the 15th year to celebrate Lights on Afterschool.

Now, therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, on this the 23rd day of October, 2014, am honored to hereby proclaim the 23rd day of October, 2014, as, in the City of Wylie, Texas, and draw attention to the many ways afterschool programs support students by offering them opportunities to learn new things and discover new skills.

“Lights On Afterschool Day”
