

Proclamation

Whereas, Jerri Smith has proudly served the City of Wylie and demonstrated a spirit of volunteerism, tirelessly giving of her time and talents over the past 29 years; and

Whereas, the Wylie Chamber of Commerce named Jerri Smith and her husband Roger, Volunteers of the Year in recognition of their outstanding service to the community; and

Whereas, Jerri Smith has served as President of the Library Board, and President of the Friends of the Rita & Truett Smith Public Library from 2005 to 2013; and

Whereas, Jerri Smith has been a key advocate for providing quality library services to the citizens of Wylie and surrounding area, raising more than $108,000 for the opening of the new library in 2011, and providing valuable input during the pre-planning and construction process; and

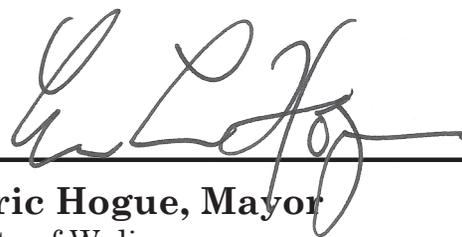

Whereas, Jerri and Roger Smith are not only involved in the community, but are also long-time residents of the great city of Wylie, Texas; and

Whereas, Jerri Smith is to be honored for her service, dedication, spirit of giving, leadership and inspiration to her community.

Now Therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on this the 14th Day of January 2014, am honored to proclaim the 14th Day of January 2014, as in Wylie, Texas, and call upon all citizens to join in recognition of this community leader and celebrate the spirit of volunteerism that inspires, recognizes and encourages people to make a difference in their community.

“Jerri Smith Day”

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas