PLEASE NOTE THAT THE PARADE ROUTE AND STAGING AREA HAVE CHANGED THIS YEAR:

The Parade line-up will take place from multiple streets of entrance this year. Floats will enter for staging on the north side of HWY 78 on Birmingham, the north side of HWY 78 on Jackson or the northwest quadrant of E. Jefferson and 2nd street. Please know that you will be given specific staging assignments the week of the parade. From there it will turn west on Oak and disperse beyond Oak and Jackson. Floats will be lined-up based on your arrival. However, if you are not at your staging area at the time noted when assignments are given your float will be in jeopardy of not being included in the parade. Please begin arriving at 5:30 p.m. so that we can get everyone lined up and ready to go by 6:15 p.m. promptly, at 7:15 p.m. our judges will be coming by to judge your float entry.

As always, we want as many individuals, community groups, and civic organizations in the parade as possible. All floats must have quality decorations. Please provide skirting if possible and lights for your entry. We want you to be creative and festive and decorate those floats, cars and yourself for the Christmas Parade. There will be 1st, 2nd and 3rd place prizes. Entries will be judged on creativity, originality, and matching themes. Have fun preparing and we look forward to seeing you in the parade.
