Wylie's Police Chief to Headline Street Dance

Wylie, TX, Friday, July 8, 2011 – City of Wylie Police Chief John Duscio and his band the Grenadines will headline Wylie's July Jubilee Street Dance, Saturday, July 9, 7 pm – 10:30 pm, in historic downtown Wylie on Ballard Avenue. The Wylie Downtown Merchants Association, City of Wylie and North Texas Equestrian Center, invite the public to bring a lawn chair, blanket or dance the night away as the 2 Tone Band and Nickleville Road join the Grenadines for this unique community event.

“We shut the street down, pull up a flat bed trailer and the fun begins,” says Wylie Downtown Merchants Association President Bobby Heath. “There is nothing else like Wylie's July Jubilee Street Dance in the Metroplex. Our historic downtown is the perfect backdrop for music, food, shopping and fun.”

A diverse lineup of bands has been scheduled for the event. The Grenadines play a blend of blues, classic rock and contemporary rock. The 2 Tone Band plays rock classics with a three-piece spin, while Nickleville Road brings a blue grass sound to downtown Wylie.
