PRESS RELEASE

Smith Library Holding Seed Swap
Master Gardeners to Answer Gardening Questions

Wylie, Texas, Feb. 13, 2017 – Those ready to move outside and begin spring gardening are invited to Smith Library’s Seed Swap, planned for Saturday, Feb. 25, from 1:30 to 4 p.m.

Friends and neighbors may bring seeds, whether store-bought or saved from years before, and trade for other seeds they’d like to plant. Seeds of edible and non-edible plants, flowers, herbs, fruits and vegetables are all welcome. Please do not bring genetically modified/engineered seeds. It is not necessary to bring seeds to share in order to attend and take home some seeds.

In addition to the swap, two Collin County Master Gardener propagation specialists will be on hand to answer questions about growing from seeds and other gardening topics.

The event is free. Participants should bring cards with information about their seeds. Include name of plant, type of seeds, and growing conditions on several cards that other participants can take with them. Also bring plastic bags or other containers, labels and felt-tipped pens.

Smith Library is located in the Wylie Municipal Complex, 300 Country Club Rd., Bldg. 300, Wylie. Call 972-516-6250 for more information.
