

Smith Library Hosting Backstage Peek at Theater Group

Wylie, Texas, Jan. 7, 2019 – Wylie’s Smith Public Library is hosting Backstage – Wylie Acting Group, a behind-the-scenes look at Wylie’s community theater, Wednesday, Jan. 23, from 6 to 7:30 p.m. The workshop will present information about the group’s history, what it takes to create a production starring children rather than teens or adults, what auditions are like, what it’s like to work in the crew, in addition to other interesting information about the group.

Adults and families are welcome, but the program will be best suited for third-graders and up. It is part of the Rita Smith Cultural Series, and there is no charge. Register on the library’s website WylieTexas.gov/library.

For more information, call 972-516-6250. The library is part of the Wylie Municipal Complex, 300 Country Club Rd., Bldg. 300, in Wylie.
