PRESS RELEASE

Wylie to Hold Clear the Shelters Day Aug. 17

Wylie, Texas, July 9, 2019 – City of Wylie Animal Services is joining animal shelters across the country, along with Channel 5 and Telemundo 39, to host a Clear the Shelters Day pet adoption event Saturday, Aug. 17, from 9:30 am until the shelter is clear.

On that day, the shelter is waiving adoption fees, and all adoptable animals will have been spayed or neutered, have had all vaccines, have a microchip, have been dewormed, and have been treated with flea and tick eradication and preventive medicine.

Wylie Animal Control Supervisor Shelia Patton said, “We will open the doors at 9:30 am, and we can’t wait to see all the happy faces and wagging tails as these sweet animals head for their forever homes!”

Over the course of the month-long campaign leading up to the event in 2018, local shelters and rescue facilities connected over 103,000 animals with new families across the country.

For the second year, Hill’s Pet Nutrition and Cat’s Pride are national event sponsors.

Patton noted that, for the last five years, Wylie has been able to clear the shelter of all adoptable pets. “We hope to make it six in a row!”

Wylie Animal Services is located at 949A Hensley Ln. Visitors must be at least 18 years old with valid ID to adopt. For more information, call 972-442-5268, email animalcontrol@wylietexas.gov or visit WylieTexas.gov/adopt.
