

FRISCO FIGHTS PEDIATRIC CANCER

Local events raise more than $270,000 for research

THE COMMUNITY OF FRISCO, TEXAS, cOlde City Park hosts annual community celebration

The Wylie Police Department held its annual National Night Out event recently, welcoming the community to enjoy public safety displays and activities, free hot dogs, cotton candy, popcorn, snow cones, and drinks, bounce houses, a barrel train, pony rides, face painting, and even a fireworks finale.

The Wylie Police and Wylie Fire Rescue teams enjoyed interacting with area families and educating them while enjoying the festivities.

[photo captions]

7 – Sofia Conway, age 4, is helped out of Wylie PD's Mine-Resistant Ambush-Protected (MRAP) Vehicle by Officer Joshua Rountree.

11 – Wylie PD Officer Sam Shipley lifts Jada Dean, age 3, out of the Mine-Resistant Ambush-Protected (MRAP) Vehicle she toured.

16 – Jace Burton, 4, tries his hand at tugging someone to safety as part of Wylie Fire Rescue's scaled-down firefighter test.

10 – Wylie PD Officers Mike Hashimoto and Sam Shipley assist a group of youngsters after a tour of the Mine-Resistant Ambush-Protected (MRAP) Vehicle on display. 📸

COURTESY:
JILL MCMILLAN/KSHCF

PHOTOS:
NATALIE IMHOFF
PHOTOGRAPHY