BLUEGRASS ON BALLARD

FREE Enjoy live bluegrass music in downtown Wylie, including Grammy winner Brad Davis performing with Texas & Tennessee. There'll also be jam sessions that the public can take part in, a 125-vehicle car show, arts and crafts, pony rides and a chili cook-off.

■ July 5 from 3 to 10 p.m. (arts-and-crafts vendors will be on-site in Olde City Park beginning at 10 a.m.) on South Ballard Avenue in downtown Wylie. Free admission. wylietexas.gov/bluegrass.

DUBSPASH

What's billed as Texas' biggest Volkswagen car show drew more than 550 entries last year, and more are expected this time around. About 30 trophies will be awarded at the event, presented by Der Luftkuhlers car club.

■ July 6 with gates opening at 9 a.m., judging at 11 and awards midafternoon at Sandy Lake Amusement Park, 1800 Sandy Lake Road, Carrollton. $2 per person for ages 4 and older (some park attractions cost extra). dlkdubsplash.com.

Bluegrass on Ballard features plenty of opportunities to experience bluegrass music, including public jam sessions.
