

Plano MURPHY WYLIE

WYLIE

Smashing good time

Residents celebrate National Night Out with car smashing, food, a petting zoo, music and more 9

A growing need

Wylie ISD sets $94.2 million bond election 14

STATE FAIR PHOTOS

See the Week 3 winner of our annual contest 16

NEIL SPERRY

Better drainage is key in waterlogged soils 20

SPORTSDAYHS

Your team, your photos, your scores and stats 23

SOUNDING OFF

Should Wylie ISD voters vote yes on the bond? 28

PRINCE of PEACE
CHRISTIAN SCHOOL & EARLY LEARNING CENTER
www.popcs.org • 972-447-0532

CHALLENGING and NURTURING STUDENTS to Flourish.

Serving families with children ages 6 weeks through Grade 12

Discover Pop Tour -Nov. 5, 8:30 a.m.

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT

Stewart F. House/Special Contributor

Sgt. Randy Hooker with the Criminal Investigation Unit of the Wylie Police Department takes a sledgehammer to a car that was seized in a crime. It was demolished by citizens and officers to promote awareness of felony crime as Wylie celebrated National Night Out.

Having a bash

Wylie celebrated National Night Out on Oct. 7 with an action-packed festival at Olde City Park. The night's activities included a car show, food, music, children's activities and demonstrations from police and firefighters.

Savannah Van Cleve, 7, of Lavon and her sister, Macy (right), 3, pet a sheep at the petting zoo as the city of Wylie celebrated National Night Out .

Ashlan Shackelford, 9, of Wylie, plays hide and seek with Ashley Lawson, in the elf costume.

GET A MAMMOGRAM

LIKE YOUR LIFE
DEPENDS ON IT.

BAYLOR HEALTH CARE SYSTEM FOUNDATION

Presented by

The Dallas Morning News
dallasnews.com

15th Annual

Celebrating Women Luncheon

When: Friday, October 24, 2014

Where: Hilton Anatole Hotel, Dallas

Call 1.800.4BAYLOR

BaylorHealth.com/CelebratingWomen

Underwriting Chairman
Maggie Kipp

Co-Chairman
Daffan Nettle

Co-Chairman
Lisa Longino