Proclamation

Whereas, Jacob Samuel Tilton has earned the rank of Eagle Scout by the Boy Scouts of America and inspired us by overcoming challenges to achieve this honor; and

Whereas, the conferring of an Eagle Scout is one of the highest awards bestowed upon a Boy Scout; and

Whereas, less than five percent of all Scouts attain this goal; and

Whereas, this achievement carries with it great honor and a commitment to continue to develop leadership skills, and to serve as a guide, role model and inspiration for both our community and nation; and

Whereas, such an award is earned in that the recipient must perform and successfully complete and pass the rigid requirements exacted to achieve the Eagle Scout Award; and

Whereas, Jacob Samuel Tilton’s Eagle Scout service project was to build a sensory trail for the Cochise Area Network of Therapeutic Equine Resources in Sierra Vista, Arizona, an equestrian center that caters to special needs young people.

Now, Therefore, the Mayor of the City of Wylie hereby extends his congratulations to Jacob Samuel Tilton for having an Eagle Scout Award conferred upon him by the Boy Scouts of America.
