Whereas, John Earl Taylor celebrates and reflects upon 55 years as an ordained minister; and

Whereas, John Earl Taylor answered the high calling to serve the least of these and proclaim the Gospel of Christ; and

Whereas, over the last 55 years John Earl Taylor has ministered as senior pastor of 10 churches in the north Texas area, associate pastor in 4 churches, and as interim pastor in 3 churches; and

Whereas, John Earl Taylor has served on the Board of Ordained Ministry, District Committees on Ordained Ministry, Board of Pension and Health Benefits, and countless other church-related boards and committees; and

Whereas, John Earl Taylor has a heart for the community reflected by his service on school boards and volunteerism with the Lions Club; and

Now, Therefore, it is with great pride that we recognize John Earl Taylor as a distinguished minister, mentor, and servant, and reflect upon his calling to impact the community and world.

In Recognition Therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, declare the 14th Day of July 2013, in recognition of his 55 years of service as an ordained minister, and in appreciation for his three years of service at Wylie United Methodist Church, as, in Wylie, Texas.

“John Earl Taylor Day”

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas
