Whereas, the Junior Catholic Daughters of the Americas will begin a year of celebrating its eighty-seventh anniversary on Sunday, February 17, 2013; and

Whereas, the Junior Catholic Daughters of the Americas program is to nurture personal and spiritual growth, to promote service to others, and to foster an awareness and appreciation of diversity through activities and experiences; and

Whereas, the national youth program is open to Catholic girls ages 6 through 18 years of age; and

Whereas, Pope Benedict XVI has declared this “The Year of Faith”; a moment of grace and commitment to a more complete conversion; and

Whereas, each Junior Catholic Daughter is called to participate in programs which strengthen their faith, enhance personal and spiritual growth, and develop leadership skills; that through their works of charity and commitment to service, they become the light to the youth in their communities.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on behalf of the Wylie City Council and Citizens of Wylie, on this the 12th day of February 2013, am honored to hereby proclaim the 17th day of February 2013, as, in Wylie, Texas, in recognition of the eighty seventh anniversary of the Junior Catholic Daughters of the Americas and their service to our community.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas
