CITY OF WYLIE
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
Proclamation

Whereas, Kathy Spillyards was appointed mayor pro tem on May 22, 2012, and has faithfully served as a member of the Wylie City Council since May 22, 2007; and

Whereas, the term “pro tem” comes from a Latin phrase which best translates to “for the time being” in English, describing the council member who has been appointed to act as mayor pro tem in the absence of the elected mayor; and

Whereas, Kathy Spillyards has served additional years of service as a member of the Library Advisory Board, The Planning and Zoning Commission, and as a member of the Public Arts Advisory Board; and

Whereas, Kathy Spillyards had the opportunity serve as mayor “for the time being” when the elected mayor was out of the City of Wylie and the state of Texas four days from April 6-9, 2013; and

Whereas, Kathy Spillyards served as the mayor and led our city council meeting on April 9, 2013; and

Now, therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, on this the 14th day of May, 2013, am honored to proclaim the 9th day of April, 2013, as,

“Mayor Kathy Spillyards Day”

in the City of Wylie, Texas.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas
