CITY OF WYLIE
OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
Proclamation

Whereas, today we honor the inspiring, courageous and selfless staff of the Wylie Police Department who regularly put the life and well-being of others ahead of their own; and

Whereas, we as a community depend upon the skill, wisdom, expertise, courage, commitment, compassion and countless acts of public service performed by our police officers to enforce our laws, maintain order, keep our neighborhoods safe and respond in times of crisis; and

Whereas, the Wylie Police Department has established an enviable and enduring reputation for preserving the rights and security of all citizens; and

Whereas, the husbands, wives, children and families of police officers should be commended as they demonstrate unwavering support and commitment for their loved one, and great fortitude every time the officer puts on the badge in the line of duty; and

Whereas, we can never adequately thank our law enforcement officers for their service, we can use every tool at our disposal to protect and keep our police department safe; and

Now, therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, on behalf of the Wylie City Council and the citizens of Wylie, on this the 24th day of September, 2013, am honored to proclaim the 22nd day of September, 2013, through the 28th day of September 2013, as, in the City of Wylie, Texas, and call upon all citizens to extend gratitude for their service to our city, and remember the spouses and children of these officers, promising to stand beside the law enforcement community and do our part to help keep Wylie safe and secure.

“Thank a Police Officer Week”

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
