Whereas, That Wylie Band proudly represents Wylie High School, the Wylie Independent School District and the City of Wylie; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band became the nickname of the Wylie High School band in the mid 1970’s, enabling them to stand above and beyond the rest of the field; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band is a group of bright, talented, hardworking, and dedicated people committed to shared goals and success; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band remains true and steadfast to their mission statement that says, Through camaraderie and personal dedication, That Wylie Band strives for excellence in every field; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band is led by a committed and skilled team of band directors including Todd Dixon, Tim Andersen and Russell Ratterree; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band members have made their parents, their teachers, the school’s administrative staff and their city very proud in being named one of the top bands in the North Texas area; and

Whereas, That Wylie Band, is to be congratulated for an amazing and impressive marching season, and will now represent our city at the state level during the 2013 UIL 4A State Marching Band Contest.

Now Therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on behalf of the entire city, am honored to proclaim the 5th Day of November 2013, as,

“That Wylie Band Day”

in Wylie, Texas.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas