Whereas, Donna Valdepena joined the Wylie Police Department on October 1, 2003, as Patrol Officer and served in a number of capacities including Patrol Sergeant, Public Information Specialist, School Resource Officer, Sergeant in Charge of Firearms and Crime Prevention Officer; and

Whereas, Donna Valdepena embodies the core values of the Wylie Police Department “to treat others the way you want to be treated, do what is right, and do the best you can”; and

Whereas, Donna Valdepena demonstrates servant leadership as a role model and mentor for numerous members of the department as well as young people in the community, modeling not only best police practices, but also kindness, compassion, friendship and spirituality; and

Whereas, she impacted, inspired and supported many with her zest for life, positive attitude and strong work ethic; and

Whereas, her dedication to the city and its police department leaves Wylie a better, safer place with more heart than when she came.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, joined by the First Lady of Wylie, am honored to proclaim the 16th day of December 2016, as in the City of Wylie, Texas, and call upon the community to join the City of Wylie and the Wylie Police Department in honoring this natural leader and outstanding member of the community.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas
