Whereas, Gladys Neta Poor was born 100 years ago on November 4, 1916, in the community of Clear Lake in Collin County; and

Whereas, Gladys has always called Collin County home, being born in Clear Lake and having lived in Blue Ridge and Wylie; and

Whereas, on December 9, 1934, Gladys married Carl Casey Foster, with whom she was married for over 75 years until his passing on August 18, 2010; and

Whereas, Gladys and Carl have two children, Wilma and Rick, along with six grandchildren and four great-grandchildren, a number of nieces and nephews, and too many friends to count; and

Whereas, Gladys Foster has always shown her devotion and commitment to her family, her friends, her community, her Christian family and to God; and

Whereas, Gladys Foster has always lived a life of service, dedication, spirit of giving, and inspiration to the community, the city of Wylie, and to the Cottonwood Church of Christ.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, am honored to proclaim the 4th day of November 2016, as in the City of Wylie, Texas, and call upon the community to celebrate Gladys Foster’s milestone 100th birthday.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas
