Whereas, Larry Gray opened Wylie Kids Unlimited in 2006, dedicated to the education and enrichment of the lives of children, providing 40 jobs to the community; and

Whereas, Larry Gray brings 35 years of early childhood development expertise to the community; and

Whereas, Larry Gray holds Kids Unlimited to a high standard of early childhood care, education and Christian values; and

Whereas, Larry Gray and the Kids Unlimited staff promote a culture of giving to others by donating to the Wylie Community Christian Care Center, St. Jude’s Children’s Research Hospital, and the Red Cross and by providing financial assistance to families struggling to pay for their childcare; and

Whereas, Larry serves as a role model and mentor, setting the Kids Unlimited children on a path to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on this the 16th day of May 2017, am honored to recognize

“Larry Gray”

in Wylie, Texas.

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas