Whereas, Carole Ehrlich began her career as City Secretary at the City of Seminole in 1998 and joined the City of Wylie as City Secretary on May 5, 2003; and

Whereas, Carole Ehrlich worked diligently to make public information more accessible by establishing and maintaining a records management program and working with Information Services to make the City Council agenda packets available electronically to council members, staff and the public; and

Whereas, Carole Ehrlich established the City of Wylie’s Public Arts Program in 2006 with the mission to further the development and awareness of, and interest in, the visual arts, to create an enhanced visual environment for City residents, and to commemorate the City’s rich cultural and ethnic diversity; and

Whereas, Carole Ehrlich was a founding member of the Texas Municipal Clerks Association Lone Star Chapter, being honored as Clerk of the Year in 2009; and

Whereas, Carole Ehrlich loyally served the citizen’s of Wylie, city council and city staff for the last fourteen years.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on behalf of the citizens of Wylie, on this the 23rd day of January 2018, am honored to hereby proclaim the 23rd day of January 2018, as, in Wylie, Texas, and urge citizens, employees and the city council to join me and recognize Carole’s outstanding career and express our sincere appreciation for her unwavering dedication to the City of Wylie, wishing Carole many years of happiness and good health in her retirement.

“Carole Ehrlich Day”

Eric Hogue, Mayor
City of Wylie
State of Texas