Whereas, Marlo Johnson received God's calling to work with kids and inspire them to strive to be the best they can be; and

Whereas, Marlo Johnson started the Texas Hotshots Basketball Program in 2003, has coached AAU Basketball, Pee Wee Football, Upward Soccer, Upward Basketball, and PSA Basketball; and

Whereas, Marlo Johnson’s coaching philosophy is to impact each student in a way that pushes them to demonstrate strong character and strive for excellence working to fulfill their goals and develop an unparalleled work ethic both on and off the court; and

Whereas, Marlo Johnson developed a life skills program that motivates youth to achieve greater emotional, social, spiritual, physical and educational success and prepare them for college life and a productive adulthood; and

Whereas, Marlo Johnson serves as a role model and mentor, setting children on a path to be our leaders of tomorrow.

Now therefore, I, Eric Hogue, Mayor of the City of Wylie, Texas, on this the 27th day of March 2018, am honored to recognize in Wylie, Texas, for his dedication and passion to work with the youth of our community and encourage all citizens to follow Marlo’s lead and look for opportunities to mentor our young people.
