Wylie's Night of Wonder Magic Show Oct. 25

WHAT: The City of Wylie proudly presents the fourth annual family-fun magic show, Night of Wonder, featuring award-winning illusionist Trigg Watson.

Trigg has received numerous awards for his performances, most notably being named the highest-scoring American magician at the World Magic Contest in Las Vegas, and two-time winner of the Texas Magicians Contest. He has also been named Dallas Performing Artist of the Year and Dallas Magician of the Year. He has appeared on POP TV's hit reality magic show "Don't Blink" and Penn & Teller's "Fool Us," and "Masters of Illusion" on the CW. Trigg performs regularly at corporate events and universities and on cruise ships around the world.

Night of Wonder is hosted by Wylie's "Magic Mayor" Eric Hogue, also an accomplished magician and member of the Society of American Magicians, the International Brotherhood of Magicians and Dallas Magic Club.

Tickets are $10 and can be purchased online at WylieTexas.gov/Magic. Proceeds will benefit Wylie Animal Shelter.
