

OH, WHAT A BEAUTIFUL MORNIN'

The Repertory Company Theatre will present the iconic musical Oklahoma! The first collaboration between Rodgers and Hammerstein, nearly 75 years later the production is often credited for reinventing musical theatre. Uniquely, the lyrics were written before the music, allowing them to memorably fuse song and story. Runs from April 21-30 at Promenade Theatre in Richardson. Check tickets online at RCTTheatre.com.

KIDS BEHIND THE WHEEL

Children from ages 2 to 5 are now gearing up for the Wylie Downtown Merchants Association's 13th Annual Pedal Car 500 Race in historic downtown, scheduled for Sunday, May 7. More than 100 kids will select a car of their choice—all of them decorated by local merchants—and race 500 inches down Ballad Street, which will be closed for the 2 p.m. event (registration begins at 1). Winners will get trophies in two age brackets, and the $10 entry fee includes a T-shirt. All proceeds benefit area Special Olympics and the beautification efforts in downtown Wylie.
