

CELEBRATE ARBOR DAY, PLANT A TREE

The City of Wylie Parks and Recreation Department will be celebrating our annual Texas Arbor Day on Friday, November 1, 2019 from 4 - 6pm.

Texas Arbor Day celebration will be held in the breezeway between the Wylie Recreation Center and the Smith Public Library, at the Municipal Complex located at 300 Country Club Road Building 200-300. Mexican Live Oaks and American Elms seedlings will be free to the public, and each one will be tagged with planting instructions.

In addition, the Parks and Recreation Department will be planting a Chinese Pistache tree near Pirate Cove Playground at Founders Park at 3:30pm on November 1st in honor of Texas Arbor Day.

Come join the Wylie Parks and Recreation Department as we celebrate this day set aside to rejoice in the beauty of trees, and to recognize the way they enrich our lives, communities and landscapes.
